CASE IN AGAINST MRS. CARTER. Not Yet Decided Whether she'll Go on the Stand in Her Own Defence. The case against Laura M. Carter, accused of taking $5,000 of the $00,000 which Chester B. Runyan stole from the Windsor Trust Company, was closed yesterday by the pros-The trial will be resumed this morning in Judge Whitman's court in General Sessions, but it has not been decided whether Mrs. Carter will go on the stand. It is the contention of Henry M. Goldfogle shat the prosecution has not produced evidence sufficient for a conviction.

Runyan, who was not as chipper as he has been, was a witness for a few minutes yesterday. There was nothing new in his testimony and then George W. Young, chairman of the board of directors of the trust company, was called. He told of a conversation he had with Mrs. Carter after Runyan's arrest. Mrs. Carter denied in the presence of Runyan, Mr. Young said, that he gave her $10,000 a short time before she betrayed him to the police. She told of several sums of $200 she got from Runyan and also of getting $5,000, that she insisted that she returned the $5,000 to him before she gave gave him up to the police. When Mr. Young counted the money Runyan had left there was $54,400 out of $80,000 cash he took. Harry Kirkstein, the young man who was after Mrs Carter's arrest and held as a witness, was not in court yesterday when Assistant District Attorney Marshall called for him. Kirkstein had been released in $500 bail, which was forfeited. He is said to have been a close friend of Mrs. Carter. Mrs. Carter sent him a note the day before Runyan's arrest day before Runyan's arrest.

day before Runyan's arrest.

Mary Duncan, the colored maid employed by Mrs. Carter, said she knew Runyan as "Mister George." Jacob Rutz, the janitor of the 144th street apartment house where Runyan and Mrs. Carter went to live, said that Mrs. Carter told him she wanted an apartment for herself and her sick brother.

"Did you ever see the sick brother?"
asked Mr. Goldfogle.
"Yes, on the day of his arrest," said Rutz.
Detective Marron described the arrest of Runyan. He said that when he got into the room Runyan was pointing a gun at him. Marron said: "Put up your hands or I'll blow the top of your head off." blow the top of your head off."

Mrs. Carter then told Marron that she didn't know who Runyan was until she saw his picture in the newspapers. She didn't think he would kill himself, but she felt he would kill her, and she decided to hand him over to the police.

BIDS FOR NEW DESTROYERS. Department fiets Fatimates for the onstruction of Five Vessels

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3. Proposale were opened at the Navy Department to-day for the construction of five torpedo boat destroyers approximately of 700 tons displacement each. The specifications require that the boats must be delivered within twenty-four months and have a speed of not less than twenty-eight knote an hour.

Only one bidder, Lewis Nixon & Co., proposed to make delivery in less than twenty-four months. Their offer was to construct a boat of thirty knots and deliver it within eighteen months, and to install gas engines. The conditions of the Nixon bid are so radically different the Nixon bid are so radically different from the specifications, and the proposed boat such a departure from the present type of destroyer that the Department is having some difficulty considering it in connection with the other bids.

The Fore River Company, which uses American turbines, offered boats of twentynine knot speed. No bidder is to be allowed to construct more than two of the boats.

The proposals were divided into two

Recently the officers of the province of Kagoshima forced the contractors who are constructing a Government railroad there to discharge 100 Chinese coolies who were employed on the road. This was done under the provisions of the special regulations promulgated when Count Okuma was Foreign Minister in 1800. By these, aliens, even after their admission to the country has been legally authorized, may be ex-pelled by the local authorities.

These regulations were made at the time of the negotiation of the treaty with the United States, in application of the treaty provision giving each nation full control over foreign laborers. WOMAN VANDAL IN THE LOUVRE. Mutilates Famous Picture "to Draw Attention" to the Homeless Poor.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Paris, Sept. 3 .- For the third time since July a picture has been injured in the Louvre. First Poussin's "Deluge" suffered at the hands of a man who has since been confined as insane. Last week a landscape by Berghem had holes torn in it by mischievious boys, as believed. To-day great picture of the Sistine Chapel by Ingres had the Pope's eye scratched out, and three of the Cardinals' figures were

The culprit was a woman, Valentine Centrel, 27 years of age, who went to the police station and gave information as to what she had done. She said she had come from Rouen with the determination to lestroy a picture in the Louvre in order o draw attention to the homeless and their nuserable state. she picked out the least crowded hall in the Louvre and waited until near the closing time, when she attacked the picture, which was the only one not covered with a glass, with scissors. The woman in explaining ner act to the prefect of police said: "It is wicked to see such fortunes gathered

THREE TERRORISTS HANGED. Victims of Unproved Charge of Plotting to Kill the Czar.

Special Cable Despatch to THE STN. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 3.-Nikitenko, Purkin and Naoumoff, condemned to death on August 29 on conviction of having plotted against the life of the Czar last May, were hanged at dawn to-day. They met death calmly. Nikitenko and Purkin refused to accept the last sacrament.

Boris Nikitenko was a retired naval Lieutenant and the son of a Colonel. He distinguished himself in the suppression of the mutiny on board the cruiser Otchakoff at Sebastopol.

Naoumoff is generally believed to have been mentally weak. He had tried seven times to commit suicide. He lived with his father, a telegraph operator, within the enclosure of the Peterhof Palace, saw the Czar daily and could have killed him at any time had he been so inclined.

*Very soon after a meal I felt that sense of emptiness, 'an aching void,' as it were, though really not hungry. The fact is the food I was then taking was not properly assimilated and I was improperly nourished, which accounted for my lack of vitality and weak condition, constant exhaustion and inability to gain flesh. "I started in on Grape-Nuts food, husband

John Kendry's Idea By Chester Bailey Fernald

John Kendry, millionaire, young, accomplished and well-favored, had an idea. He did not want, as is usual in such cases, to add another million or so to his fortune. He wanted to do something for the world's advancement generally-to help along, without ostentation, the true and the beautiful. But, -

With hammer and chisel and pen,

We will fight for ourselves and a woman For ever and ever. Amen."
